Chapter 1 by Feyre Archeron

Sticking two black button eyes on our snowman, I turned and gave Charlie a high-five.

"Finished!" I said. "And there's not a finer snowman in the whole neighborhood." But Charlie wasn't looking at me. He was staring at the snowman, his face almost as white.

"D-d-d-did you s-s-s-see THAT?" he stammered..... I looked at him confused. He started to drift away when all of the sudden he ran off. I turned around frightened to see my snow man walking down the street. I just about fainted. Practically I did because I woke up in the hospital, with stitches on my forehead.

I woke up the next morning, still in a hospital bed, confused about what had gone on two days ago. I got up to go ask my mom when I could go home, but I couldn't find her anywhere. I walked all around the hospital, I started to freak out.

I walked up to someone and they walked right through me! I just about had a heart attack. I ran back to my hospital room, but when I got there i came to realize that I was in a comma. My mother was sitting on the bed next to me reading my favorite book. But how could this be I'm standing right here?
